MAGIC SHOW AT CHATS PALACE

The Magic Cabaret presented by Jasmine's Magic Parties at Chats Palace, 42 Brooksby's Walk, London E9 6DF jasminesmagicparties.co.uk / jasmine@jasminesmagicparties.co.uk
Featuring: Oliver Tabor olivertabor.com and Michael Vadini

Lyla and Scarlett try to find out how to do the tricks with magician Oliver Tabor

On Saturday, we went to Chats Palace to watch a performance that featured magicians Oliver Tabor & Michael Vadini. At the start of the show, the host warmed up the audience by making us do some funky salt shaker dancing.

The first magician was Oliver Tabor who amazed us by bouncing bubbles and catching them. He also did a trick with his pet dove 'Greeny' by making him appear as part of a line of handkerchiefs. This was our favourite.

Next up was Michael Vadini who invited audience members onto the stage and pulled coins out of their ears and clothing. He also made an egg appear and disappear out of a hanky.

Oliver Tabor came back on and did card reading tricks involving an audience member thinking of a card number. He also did an arm twisting trick.

Look out for future magic performances in Hackney!

Meeting the magicians – Oliver Tabor and Michael Vadini

Scarlett: What's your favourite trick?

Oliver: The 3 cup and 3 ball trick, as it is really simple you just have to practice, practice, practice!

Michael: The magic coin trick, but it changes depending on how the audience is as the magic is also about how you are with the audience member.

Lyla: Can you saw a lady in half?

Michael: I tried to saw my wife in half but it didn't work, half in London and half in Paris, I'm only kidding I haven't done it.

Oliver: No, it's a bit dangerous, but I can do a razor blade trick which I did today.

Scarlett: What is your biggest audience ?

Michael: A cabaret in Paris with 800 people.

Oliver: 2500 people in a magicians' competition in Blackpool at the opera house. It was very scary as most of the audience was other magicians.
